Need for Hospital In Antioch Seen By Local Doctors

Travel to Distant Hospitals Takes Physicians Away When Needed

Antioch needs a hospital. This necessity is becoming more and more apparent each week as doctors have to travel to Waukegan and Kenosha hospitals almost daily in seeing their patients. While there they are not available for emergency cases. This situation was seen Tuesday noon when Art Karft, a 15-year-old youth broke his ankle while wrestling with another youth near the caddy house at the Chain O' Lakes Country Club where he is employed.

The Rescue squad administered first aid but a physician could not be obtained for a while because all were out of the village and most of them at distant hospitals.

Antioch has five good physicians and surgeons and all of them agree that the community needs a hospital. It could be a small one for emergency purposes if for nothing else, they say.

They point to the Charles Ackerman property on Main st., north of the Methodist church as something that would be suitable for conversion into a hospital.

Antioch doctors serve a radius of from 10 to 15 miles, extending well into Wisconsin. Scarcely a day goes by but that the name of some patient from this area served by them appears in the reports of the Waukegan and Libertyville hospitals.

Antioch physicians have to travel 20 miles or more to see their hospitalized patients, causing loss of time. Relatives of the patients find this inconvenience too.

Greater use of hospitals is taking place each year. Doctors find that special care means more rapid recovery of the patient. They save time in concentrating their practices. Practically all births now take place in hospitals.

The Farm Bureau of Lake county recently included the Blue Cross hospital service for their members, adding to the potential use of hospitals.

Many villages are served by private clinics, which have their own private hospitals but Antioch's situation is not conducive to such a plan since it has a good supply of independent practicing physicians.

The village has no Chamber of Commerce to take up this matter and it may have to be acted upon by social clubs or public spirited individuals if anything is done.

A hospital of moderate size would make Antioch more of a hub in the lakes region than it now is.

Boys Turn Tables on Girls, Wear Feminine Clothing At Roller Skating Rink

When Antioch girls persisted in wearing levis and jeans in masculine fashion at the Sequoia roller skating rink the boys turned up last night in feminine apparel.

And they did a good job of it too. Short skirts and blouses prevailed and the makeup was artistic.

Nowadays with girls wearing men's clothing so that an observer has to look twice to determine the sex, one had to look twice during the course of the skating to determine who were girls and who boys.

For instance, there was a blond young man with a head ribbon and an off the shoulder white blouse with good makeup who had far more appeal than one of the cigar smoking girls in jeans and blue shirt.

Another was fetching in a scotch plaid skirt and tam with white blouse.

Where they got the garb they didn't say but it may have been the clothing the girls discarded when they bought the levis.

Oct. 10 Registration Date

The county board of supervisors has appropriated money to be the expense of pre-election registration which will take place in all precincts on Oct. 10. Eligible voters who have never registered or who have changed their addresses or names through marriage will have to register on or before that date.

Frank Carlson of the Lake County Building Maintenance Co., recently completed the job of tuck pointing both banks and the Somerville building.

Four Antioch Citizens Buy Recreation Alleys; Consider New Building

The Antioch Recreation has been purchased by four local men, Elroy Anderson, Ed Carney, Emil Hallways and Louie Bauer.

The purchase of the bowling alleys was made from Joseph Rederer who purchased the place from Carl Gibson on May 1. The Gibsons had the lanes for four and one-half years.

The new owners expect to take possession in about a week and are extending a welcome to new as well as all of the old bowlers.

Leagues are being organized this week with the meeting for the men set for today and tomorrow and for the women on Monday. Persons wishing to join are asked to attend one of these meetings to be held at night.

In the near future, conditions permitting, the men hope to erect a building holding 12 alleys. The alleys will be closed Sept. 5, 6, and 7 for redecoration.

Bauer, one of the new owners, was one of the persons who first established the Antioch Recreation.

Central High School Group to Organize at Bristol Friday Night

Bristol—An organization meeting of the new Central High school district will be held at the community hall here at 8 p. m. Friday, Aug. 18.

A. O. Spiegel, chairman of the Kenosha county board of education, said that officers will be chosen and a movement started to provide a new building for the high school district.

Twin Lakes and Randall have petitioned to join the Wilmet school district and there is a probability that some effort will be made by the area west of Wilmet and some in its vicinity at the east to petition out of the Central District.

These regions are needed by the Central district, however, as a source of tax for a new building. With rising costs the probability of an adequate building seems more remote than two months ago, observers say.

Laura C. James, 81 Dies in Hospital

Laura C. James, 81, 441 Orchard street, a widely known resident of Antioch, passed away August 11, at 11:15 a. m. at St. Therese hospital, Waukegan, following a lingering illness. She was the widow of the late J. C. James, who died October 14, 1946.

Mrs. James was born March 19, 1869, in Sedalia, Virginia. She came to Antioch with her husband, following their marriage at Williamsburg, Virginia, June 19, 1888, making their home here for the past sixty-one years. On June 19, 1946 they celebrated their fifty-seventh wedding anniversary.

Mrs. James was a member of the Antioch Methodist church and for many years was a willing and active worker in all church affairs.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Bertha Louise Gilbert, a son, Ralph C. James, both of Chicago, three grandchildren, Edward Gilbert, Hollywood, California, Ralph C. James, Jr., and Winnifred James, of Chicago and two great grandchildren, Diana and Ross Gilbert.

Funeral services were held Monday, August 14, at 2 p. m. at the Strang Funeral home with the Rev. Robert Harrison of Lake Villa officiating. Burial was in Hillside cemetery.

Sheriff's Deputies Seek Man Who Tried to Lure Small Boy at Grass Lake

Deputy sheriffs are trying to find a man who tried to lure the 11-year-old son of Mrs. Dorothy Mazzone, of Chicago, into some weeds near Grass Lake Tuesday.

The boy said he was walking home on a dirt road when he saw a man in levi britches crawling toward him on hands and knees.

Horrified, the boy froze in his tracks. The man moved toward him, he said, with an evil look on his face and beckoned him. The boy gathered courage, he said, and ran for home and the stranger disappeared. He said the man was young.

The Mazzones own a summer home at Grass Lake.

Antioch High to Open Wednesday, Sept. 6; Registration Continues

Final Check by Classes on Aug. 31, Sept. 1, Principal Announces

Plans are being gradually completed by the administrative staff of the Antioch High school for the opening day of school, Wednesday, September 6th. On Tuesday, Sept. 5, all teachers of the high school will attend the county institute in Waukegan.

R. C. Edmundson who is succeeding T. R. Birkhead as principal of the high school and Elmo T. Edwards, assistant principal, are completing the registration of pupils, making class schedules and teacher assignments, bus schedules, and other details which accompany the opening of school.

Thursday, Aug. 31, and Friday, Sept. 1 are designated as the two days in which pupils may check their final registration, obtain textbooks and supplies, receive locker assignments, and make a final check on the bus schedules. All of this information will be available.

In order to facilitate the services to the pupils on these days one half-day is being assigned to each of the four classes. The schedule is as follows: Thursday morning, Aug. 31,

R. C. EDMUNDSON

Freshman class; Thursday afternoon Aug. 31, Sophomore class; Friday morning, Sept. 1, Junior class; and Friday afternoon, Sept. 1, Senior class. Students are requested to make special effort to come at the time reserved for their particular class. However, if a student finds it difficult to come at the regular time he may select any time during the two day interval.

Mr. Edwards reports there will be very little change in the bus routes. He will follow the same procedure as last year in informing the pupils of the bus schedules. A map will be posted on the bulletin board with the name of the student and the time he will board the bus. Students should check the map to confirm his time schedule.

The administrative office of the high school will be open and available to students and parents daily. Mr. Edmundson and Mr. Edwards will be glad to consult with parents and students concerning questions they may have pertaining to their registration or other matters. Students other than freshmen, who are registering for the first time in the Antioch High school should make special effort to see the principal and complete all the details of enrollment before the opening of school.

No additional members are being added to the faculty, but it is necessary for the board of education to employ two new faculty members to fill vacancies caused by the resignation of the librarian and art instructor. Several well-qualified applicants are being considered and these positions will be filled within a few days.

Mr. Cunningham, Porter Larson and Harry Smith, custodians, have been busily engaged during the summer in cleaning up the building and making minor repairs. All of the work has been completed and the building is in excellent condition for the opening of school.

Northbrook High Troubles

Northbrook High school in the Northwest Conference with Antioch is having building troubles. After discovering that its bond issue is too small to construct the desired building the board is now being sued to change the location of the proposed building. The site already purchased following a referendum is centrally located one mile south of Northbrook. Glenview wants it there.

Oakland School to See Temporary Use Until Antioch Addition Built

The Oakland building closed March 31 upon consolidation of that school with the Antioch grade school will be reopened for temporary use until the new addition here is completed, Richard Whitacre, principal said.

The second and third grade classes have been split and one of them will be sent to Oakland. Hot lunches will be served there as before and the same superintendent of cooking employed there before has been rehired.

Since the school needs two extra rooms, the room at the Antioch building used as a band room will be taken over as a class room. Because kindergarten is only held in the forenoon the kindergarten room will be used during the afternoons for a band room by Hans Van Holwede.

Work on the roofing will be completed this week Whitacre said. The insulation arrived on Monday.

Walls for partition of classrooms are being built.

The school authorities believe that rooms in the new addition will be available for use in about two months. The gymnasium may not be ready until later, however, but basketball will not begin until in November.

Preparation Made for Overflow of Lake Villa Grade School This Fall

The village hall, the Cedar lake, and Sand lake schools will be used by the Lake Villa Consolidated School district to house the overflow of pupils this fall resulting from failure to complete the new addition on time.

Children from the two classes at the village hall and Sand lake will be transported to the Lake Villa building for lunch. The Cedar lake school is equipped to serve hot lunch.

The first and second grades will be taught at the village hall, the third grade at Sand lake, and the fourth to eighth grades inclusive at Lake Villa.

Thal Rush of Newport township, who teaches instrumental music at the Hawthorn school and in Warren township, will devote five hours a week to a program of instrumental music in the Lake Villa school, Principal R. H. Lundahl said.

The board will supply some instruments and the pupils will rent or buy the rest from dealers. Rush hopes to start a band in the school by next year.

Lenore Linder, of Wadsworth has been hired as a full time music and art teacher.

The board expressed its disappointment that the new addition is not completed for the opening of school and asked the contractors O. W. Potter and Son to try to have four lower rooms finished by October so that the overflow can be taken care of.

Registration of beginners who didn't register last spring will be the last week in August at the principal's office. Birth certificates are required. New pupils in the district will also register at that time bringing grade cards.

Mrs. Robert Wilton and sons, Bob and Bill, returned home Monday after spending several days with relatives at Pittsfield, Illinois.

City Championship Softball Tourney Is Set for August 24

Lions, Firemen and Moose Softball Games To Benefit Park

The Antioch high school lighted diamond will be the scene of a battle to determine the city organization softball championship next Thursday, August 24 at 7:30 p. m., when the Antioch Lions club, the Antioch Fire department and the Antioch Moose will tangle to a finish.

The affair will feature a preliminary game between the Firemen and the Lions, and the winner of the game will take on the strong Moose team. Promoters of the game said today that it is likely that many of the members of the losing team will augment the team which will oppose the Moose, since player stamina is not expected to be too high.

All three organizations are confident of victory in the tourney which will benefit the park fund. Anthony Scully is promoting the event on behalf of the park, and met with representatives of the three organizations this week to iron out final plans.

Ed Carney, manager of the Moose team said today that his team would take the field with such stars as Art Meyers and "Swede" Johnson on the mound and behind the plate with Johnny Benes, Joe Buazta, Joe Gorlitz, Bill Meyers and Wally Good expected to provide the slug-ging strength to put his team out in front. The Moose team has had a fairly successful season against strong league competition and is a heavy favorite to win the title.

The Lions club team, while not playing a regular schedule, has shown well in a game or two, with "Red" Murrie as captain. Starring in the hitting department will be Ed Vos, Ed Jacobs, Art Smejkal, Bill Horton and Harry Lydiard.

The Fire Department, used to handling "hot" stuff, according to Chief Ed Simonsen, will prove stiff competition for the Lions, with Elmer Peterson, Murrill Cunningham, Lewie Van Patten and Village President Jim McMillen, expected to star for the smoke eaters.

Carney said today that perhaps some of the other organizations of the community would not feel that the championship of Antioch should be so easily won, and that he expected a challenge to the winners would be forthcoming. When, the subject of the Boy Scouts came up, he admitted that the scouts would provide competition for any of the teams.

While the games will, no doubt, be of a lesser calibre than the big leagues, it is certain that spectators will enjoy an entertainment worth seeing at the high school field next Thursday evening.

Father of Mrs. Tague Suffers Heart Attack

Robert Edwards, 84, father of Mrs. William P. Tague, Rte. 173, Antioch, is reported in critical condition at Passavant hospital, Chicago, where he was taken Tuesday afternoon after suffering a heart attack in his daughter's home.

Mr. Edwards, a retired Chicago businessman, had lived with his daughter here for the past three months. He was administered oxygen by the Antioch Rescue squad following the attack. A Waukegan ambulance took him to Chicago. Mrs. Tague accompanied her father to the hospital, where he is reported in an oxygen tent today.

Board Establishes Tax Levy at $45,557 by Cutting Police Fund

Passes Resolution Extending Rent Control Until June 30, 1951

The village board meeting Tuesday evening in an adjourned session set the tax levy for the fiscal year at $45,551.

In establishing the levy the trustees shaved off about $4,000 which was considered for the police department under the belief that an extra patrolman will not be needed since it is so late in the summer and summer is when he is really needed.

The board let the contract for oiling the arterial streets to the Libertyville Petroleum Co., the only bidders for $2,587.98.

A contract for painting the water tower was let to James Hanlon and Son of Skokie, Ill. The contract for painting the exterior was $425 and the interior $225. The work will not be done until after Labor Day.

In the past the work has not been very satisfactory and the board believes in letting the contract to the Skokie firm it will get a more satisfactory job.

Through a unanimous vote the board extended rent controls in Antioch until next June 30. The board was obliged to act one way or the other before Sept. 1, and it followed the procedure of most cities and villages in Lake county.

County Water District Planned to Relieve Big Shortage Now Appearing

A meeting was held in Waukegan last Thursday in which first steps were taken to form a Lake County Water district.

While Antioch has a good supply of water now the area to the south-east has been in need at times and since the water level here has dropped in recent years, there may come a time when water will become a problem.

The plan to those preparing to form the district is to supply water from Lake Michigan to villages in the western part of the county. Waukegan would be one of the pumping places and other cities along the shore with pumping stations may also serve the inland localities.

A preliminary engineering report by the firm of Greeley and Hansen has estimated the cost at $5 million. In greatest need of water now are Gurnee, Libertyville and Mundelein. Mundelein last week sank its second unsuccessful test well.

The great increase in population accounts for the greater demand of water.

John P. Kottcamp, of Waukegan, was named chairman of a steering committee which will start work at once on the organization of the district.

Wilmet Has Big Fair Despite Cold Weather; Lake Co. Represented

The Kenosha county fair at Wilmet, Wis., was the largest this year in history, 40,000 persons passing through the gates during the four days.

While the night crowds were smaller because of cold weather the daytime crowds were larger, Henry Frank, secretary, said.

The horse show had more competition than ever, but the cold nights were not conducive to spectators sitting in the bleachers. Despite this handicap the attendance was good.

The machinery exhibit equal to that of the state fair, was larger than ever this year. No charge is made to farm machinery exhibitors.

Labor also participated strongly this year, having a tent exhibit of its own and providing a speaker on Friday from the Washington office of the CIO.

Lake county, Illinois, exhibitors took several hundred dollars worth of prize money. William Duncan, Millburn sheep raiser, Holst Bros., of Barrington, and other exhibitors from Prairie View took away blue ribbons.

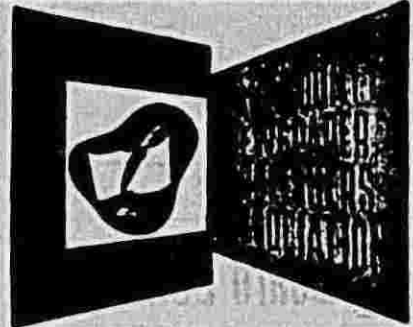

Receipts from the concessions were the heaviest ever. Large crowds witnessed the free acts.

"Our fair will be bigger than ever next year if we can keep this same organization," said Frank.

Crazy-Quilt Laws

Lowell Mason, formerly Chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, has said, "American business is being harassed, bled and even blackjacked under a preposterous crazy-quilt system of laws, many of which are unintelligible, unenforceable and unfair. There is such a welter of laws governing interstate commerce that the government literally can find some charge to bring against any concern it chooses to prosecute. I say that this system is an outrage and that it is time the government did something sensible about bringing its own operations up to the same standards of ethics that it expects of business."

One particularly good example of this incredible legal confusion is found in the oil industry. Some time ago, in a Federal Trade Commission case against Standard Oil Company of Indiana, which was sustained by the Circuit Court, the company was ordered to discontinue selling gasoline to any jobber who resold to its retail customers at a price lower than Standard's price to its retailers. In other words, the company was required to maintain and exert resale price control over the jobber.

Now an antitrust suit has been brought against a group of major West Coast oil companies. One paragraph reads: "That defendant majors and each of them be completely and perpetually enjoined from using any plan, program, practice or device which has either the purpose or effect of establishing or maintaining resale prices of gasoline and other refined petroleum products at either the wholesale or retail selling levels." As the President of one of the companies put it, "If we have a resale price maintenance policy, the antitrust boys will be after us and if we do not have a resale price maintenance policy, the Federal Trade Commission boys will be after us!"

Similar injustices have hit a long list of industries. If the government wants its citizens to be law-abiding, let it inform them what the law actually is and not use inconsistencies to permit persecution and confusion.

The End of States' Rights

mond Moley wrote: "The most gigantic example of planning . . . is the proposal for a series of river-valley authorities which would ultimately cover the nation. These are to follow the pattern of the TVA. The Columbia Valley Administration is first on the list, and President Truman vigorously argued for it on his recent Western trip. Under the Columbia plan, there would be three board members, virtually irremovable during a six-year term, with vast powers over electric-power production, navigation, irrigation, and many related activities. States would be denied their traditional control over their rivers, their land and their resources generally. Local communities would be compelled to accept grants from CVA in lieu of taxes. Almost every business and individual enterprise, from the small farm to the vast lumber industry, would be subjected through the control of electric energy. As a major spokesman for the plan has said, 'He who controls electric power controls people.'"

That is an accurate description of the CVA bill. It applies with equal force to the other valley authorities. It shows how these schemes would destroy the basic rights of the states, the independence of vast regions, and would make all concerned wards of the Federal government. And yet the public officials advocating these measures object to them being called socialistic. Then what are they?

It is now felt that, due to the international crisis, CVA and other such measures will be quietly shelved for the time being. But they will come back into the limelight—and when they do the whole weight of the government will be used in an attempt to force them down our throats. That is what we must be forever on guard against.

Be A Pot-Walloper

In days gone by, our citizens would walk miles through the wilderness to vote because they knew their vote was important to good government. Nowadays there is dangerous laxity on the part of a great number of voters who think that a single vote has no value. This is just what minority groups seeking power want the voters to think. A light vote gives an organized, designing minority a chance to gain power.

A heavy vote is the best assurance of representative government because then a minority cannot "steal" an election. Voting may not seem important because to some who have lost sight of what it cost in blood and suffering to gain the liberties we all enjoy, but they are sadly mistaken. By accepting the rights we enjoy as God-given, the more apt we are to fall prey to the snares of those who would destroy our liberties.

The tragedy is that the promoters of our destruction generally accomplish their ends with tax dollars under the guise of offering beneficent hand-outs.

We will lose our freedom if we permit a minority to saddle us and socialism as the result of a light vote.

So become a staunch pot-walloper (see dictionary) and get out and vote at every election to save your own bacon.

SHORT STORY Jackie's Best World

By Richard Hill Wilkinson

THE DAY BEFORE Darling's three-ring circus, largest to ever visit New England, came to Dexter, Silas Ledbetter called his 12-year-old son in from the barn and said:

"Look here, Jackie, you've been a pretty good boy this summer. Guess you deserve bein' on hand with the other boys at that circus when it gets here tomorrow."

The Ledbetters were poor as church mice, and Jackie hadn't dared even let himself think his pop would let him attend the circus. Consequently, his round blue eyes grew even rounder.

Old Silas grinned and swallowed a lump in his throat. He dug down into his pocket and brought out a shiny, new silver half-dollar.

Jackie carefully placed the half-dollar in a pocket of his tattered overalls, pulled his straw hat well over his ruddy face, puckered up his lips and began to whistle. He whistled all that afternoon and was still whistling when he came in from the lower lot for supper.

Once upstairs, Jackie carefully took off his shirt and then felt in the pocket of his overalls for the half-dollar. He'd better sleep with it under his pillow, he reasoned, like he'd read about folks doing.

It was right then that Jackie's heart sank, right then that the world turned black and there was a horrible, terrifying, empty feeling in the pit of his stomach. The half-dollar was gone!

Jackie wanted to cry, but he was too much of a man for that. He searched through the other pocket very carefully, and then looked in his shoes, and under the bed and about everywhere that the half-dollar might have been. But it was gone, completely vanished.

And so Jackie, his heart aching with misery, crawled into bed. And then—he couldn't help it—he cried. But all the time he kept telling himself he was a man now and he'd better stop crying before mom came up to tuck him in and kiss him good night.

If mom found him crying she'd feel bad and probably cry, too. And Jackie didn't want that to happen.

HE COULDN'T, he decided, even let mom know that he had lost the half-dollar. Or pop either. That wouldn't be fair. He'd just go off by himself tomorrow afternoon and make them think he was at the circus all the time. He wouldn't want them to know for anything. There wasn't any one in the world had a better pop and mom than he.

Jackie carefully placed the half-dollar in a pocket of his tattered overalls.

Jackie fought to keep back the tears. He didn't wait long after breakfast and set out with his pitchfork over his shoulder and a whistle on his lips.

Once out of sight of the house, the whistle died. The ache and misery in his heart just wouldn't let it go on. Still, he was going to see the parade anyway, and pop and mom would think he was going to the circus. It was comforting to know that pop and mom were happy.

Jackie reached the lower lot and began to shake out the hay as pop had asked him to do. He couldn't last on the job, he told himself, because if he did pop wouldn't think him very grateful for the half-dollar.

Jackie turned the hay in one window and started on the next. But all the while his heart fairly sobbed with misery. And then abruptly that same heart almost ceased to beat. Jackie stared and stared at something round and shiny that lay in the stubbles under the forkful of hay he'd just picked up. After a long time it seemed, his heart began to thump again. He felt goose pimples breaking out all over his body. He wanted to cry and shout and do all sorts of things.

And then Jackie remembered that he'd been working here on the afternoon before, and the half-dollar must have slipped out of his pocket. He picked up the coin, squeezed it lovingly and, holding it tightly in his clenched fist, went to shaking out the hay again. The best mom and the best pop in the world, he told himself joyfully.

FORMER PLAYBOY Expects War With Russia

NEW YORK — James Hazen Hyde, the man who once gave parties costing as much as $200,000 each and spent 36 years of self imposed exile in France, has returned to the United States to live.

"America is a great and wonderful country," he observed after so many years abroad. He lived in France until 1941.

Hyde fell heir at 23 to the controlling interest in Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, a company with a billion dollars worth of insurance on its books.

Shortly after he became head of the company, he was taken in tow by unscrupulous financiers with an eye on the 400 million dollars in Equitable assets. These funds were manipulated to make enormous profits for the operators.

Gave Expensive Parties
Meanwhile, Hyde was throwing some of his biggest parties. The last one was held at Sherry's ballroom in New York and is reported to have cost between $100,000 and $200,000. It drew criticism from newspapers throughout the country. Hyde was called a gilded, scented youth in editorials and the incident helped to end his career as an executive.

Insurance policy holders sued the company charging officers with squandering company funds and receiving extravagant salaries. As a result, Charles Evans Hughes directed a cleanup of the affair and enactment of legislation controlling insurance companies. It made Hughes a great public figure.

When the investigation reached the courts Hyde took the stand and hurled charges at nearly every important executive in the company. He indicated that he had been used as a catspaw. When he left the stand, hundreds of people followed him through the streets, cheering.

Views Russian Power
To get himself out of the mess, however, Hyde sold his interests in the company for $2,500,000 and went to Paris to live. He had an important part in liaison during World War I.

Now, back in New York, Hyde said he is going to spend the coming war—he believes there will be one—in America.

In explaining the present European situation, Hyde said, "The only thing the Russians understand is force."

He believes our state department is doing a good job fighting communism in Europe through the Marshall plan, and favors the Atlantic pact.

But Americans do not always understand the position of western European countries, he said. Those nations admire and like the United States, but they are living in deadly fear of the huge military force maintained in Europe by Russia.

"Before the United States could ever come to their aid, England and France would be destroyed," he added.

Hyde said the western powers are handicapped in their battle with Russia because the governments of France and England are in control only by bare majorities and because the state department is "weakened by the unfortunate scandal and investigations in Washington."

Little Jack Horner

Mother Goose's Little Jack Horner is described as "a man who really lived in 16th-century England." The plum he pulled out in the popular nursery rhyme was "a fine estate he got from lands that King Henry VIII seized from the church."

Thailand
The last census reported that five-sixths of the workers in Thailand were farmers or fishermen. The paddy farmers raise enough to make the country the world's largest rice exporter. Rubber and tin production is increasing. Other crops include sugar, coconuts, tobacco, pepper, and cotton. Among livestock, elephants rank high. They move giant teakwood logs through the dense forests of north Thailand.

Young Turkeys
Young turkeys grow so fast and make such good use of every bit of grain that poultry specialists of the U. S. department of agriculture are taking special interest in the marketing of turkey broilers.

Nautical Mile
Nations disagree on the precise length of a nautical mile. According to U. S. calculations, it is 6,080.20 feet. Britain used 6,070.98 feet; France and Germany, 6,076.10 feet, while Iceland makes it 6,085.95 feet.

PASES DEPORTATION

Former GI Held as Spy

NEW YORK — Frederick E. Bauer, who gave up his French citizenship in 1935 to become a citizen of the United States and a member of this country's armed forces, may give up the fight to stay in this country and be deported to Germany.

Bauer was arrested in 1945 for investigation of charges that he was a German spy. The charges were said to be based on information discovered in Germany.

If he is deported, his wife, Wilma, a native of Rockville, Ind., and their two children, Carmen, 2½, and a son not yet six months old, will also be deported.

Served in U. S. Army

"I have been on Ellis Island with him for three and a half years," Mrs. Bauer said recently. "The children share a room with us. Unless we can get away from there within a few weeks we will have to give up and let them send us to Germany."

"It is like facing death. Even the Germans on Ellis Island called my husband a traitor to Germany. And those Germans, Nazis, were released on parole. Only my husband, who served loyally and well in the army here, was not allowed to be free under bond or on parole."

Mrs. Bauer first met her husband in Indianapolis. They were married on Christmas eve, 1944. He was a sergeant stationed at Fort Benjamin Harrison.

Bauer came to this country in 1930 and five years later became an American citizen. He studied law and was admitted to practice in the federal courts as a patent attorney. He was qualified by the U. S. supreme court.

In 1938 he returned to Germany to work. He related after his arrest that he had been appointed a spy by the Nazis, but that he had tricked them into this solely for the purpose of getting out of Germany. He acknowledged that the Germans had given him $2,000 and two escorts who put him on a ship in Spain that arrived here in 1941. But he maintained that he never had carried out his assignment.

Joined German Army

By joining the German army, Bauer nullified his American naturalization, the U. S. government charges. The department of justice also insists that in view of his alleged loss of citizenship, he is guilty of illegal entry into the country.

The immigration authorities hold that Bauer should be deported to Germany as an alien enemy. Bauer contends that, even if this American citizenship should be cancelled, he would revert to French citizenship, not German.

"We just can't stand it any longer," Mrs. Bauer declared recently. If he is deported, his wife, an American, and two children born in this country, will go with him.

Two Pilots, Woman Saved From Plunge Over Falls

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y. — Several persons have plunged over Niagara Falls in barrels and lived to tell about their much publicized stunt, but none had been rescued from certain death after falling or jumping into the river above the cataract, until recently.

Two pilots and a woman were rescued by helicopter from a 160-foot plunge over Horseshoe Falls. The dramatic rescue was witnessed by hundreds of horrified spectators.

Early one morning recently park employees heard a woman's screams for help and found her clinging to a rock about 75 feet from shore.

She was Mrs. Jeannette Bugay, 25, wife of a Niagara Falls taxi driver and mother of three children.

The park employees tried to rescue her. One waded into the river while another held a rope fastened to him. The swift current, however, knocked him down and his companion pulled him to safety.

Firemen then tried to get a rowboat to the woman, but failed. A helicopter was then called to the rescue.

The craft, pontoon equipped, landed on the water near the rock to which the woman clung. Joseph A. Cannon, 30, one of the pilots, climbed out on a pontoon and slipped a rope about the woman. As he started pulling her toward the helicopter he slipped and lost his balance. The plane tipped over and the spinning rotor blades hit the water.

Still clinging to the woman, the pilots climbed back aboard the wrecked plane which drifted about 35 yards closer to the falls before lodging on a rock.

A hurried call was put in to the nearby Bell Aircraft Corp. plant and a second helicopter sped to the scene.

One end of a rope was dropped to the pilots in the wrecked craft. They tied it to the wreck. The second helicopter then dropped the other end to firemen on shore.

A rowboat moved cautiously along the rope to the trio and brought them safely to land.

Ears Jimmy Gets First Ones

GREENVILLE, Pa. — Little Jimmy Meadows has never been an unhappy child because he was different from other children. He didn't have any ears.

Now Jimmy is getting the ears that nature forgot and in another six months he will be just like another nine year old boy. And he's happy about it.

The Greenville Rotary Club heard about Jimmy and arranged for the surgical program. The plastic surgery began more than a year ago. First doctors packed rib cartilages in ear-shaped molds and planted them in Jimmy's abdomen to grow. Then the doctors transplanted the ears to Jimmy's head.

At the moment the ears are a little flat, but a few more operations will take care of that as well as the external blood vessels that now run from his new ears a short distance down to his neck.

Egg Tossing Teacher Is Most Popular At City College

NEW YORK — Dr. Gerald Ehrlich, instructor of social and mental hygiene at City College of New York, is the most popular teacher at that institution. The reason: he throws eggs at his students and shoots cap pistols in class.

The professor lectures for the first 20 minutes or so of a class, and if he detects any signs of fatigue or sluggishness he will go into his act.

At different times, he has fired a cap pistol, made a cigarette disappear, or demonstrated a handkerchief that changes colors. Also he might make live mice appear or hurl eggs across the classroom.

Behind this frivolity, however, the professor has a serious purpose. He explains, "Teen-agers are under pressure all the time—meeting such problems as how to choose a career, how to be popular, how to get along with their families, how to do well in their studies. As a result, they are usually too tense to get the most out of their classes. I simply try to help them relax."

"Young people depend on their teachers for emotional warmth and appreciation as well as learning. No teacher can afford to be a walking textbook," he added.

His antics shows the students that he is just as much human as they are and they relax and absorb the work more readily. He has been teaching for 15 years.

Urges Newspapers Help Fight on Sex Crimes

NEW YORK — The nation's editors have been asked to aid law enforcement agencies in a fight to curb the ever increasing rate of sex crimes in the United States.

In an address before the American Newspaper Publishers Association, Edwin S. Friendly, president, told the editors sex crimes "imperil the moral fibre of our nation."

"Today the sex maniac is on the rampage. The depraved sex criminal has replaced the kidnaper as a threat to the peace of mind of parents of America."

He then asked the editors to "help law enforcers curb these heinous crimes."

Rape cases in the United States have reached an all-time high—increasing 100 per cent in the last 15 years and 50 per cent over pre-war years, he told the newspapermen.

He quoted the opinion of F.B.I. Chief J. Edgar Hoover that newspapers should play up sex offenses to put the spotlight on offenders, but withhold the names of victims.

"The newspapers of the nation have never been squeamish in reporting the news—in putting honest facts before the public. They cannot afford to hedge in this grave matter."

"Let us back up tough legislation and undiminished policing with forthright and courageous journalism to help eliminate the serious menace of the sex criminal," Friendly said.

"Most frightening of all," he said, "is the fact that most of the victims are children."

Old War Bombs Explode; 14 Killed, 60 Injured

CATANIA, SICILY — Fifteen salvage workers were blown to bits here recently when 70 tons of aerial bombs left by the Italian air force were exploded by one of the workers.

The salvage workers were removing explosives from 35 two-ton missiles. A worker's hammer set off the explosion that killed 14 and injured 60 other persons.

The blast dug a crater 25 feet deep and 300 feet wide. Most of the dead were mangled beyond identification.

Thousands of persons in the city of 245,000 ran through the streets in panic. Bomb splinters and flying glass caused most of the injuries in the greatest disaster of the area since the war swept through Sicily in 1943.

LAST YEAR WE appointed Barney Bridges chairman of our annual fair in Burncrest. Old Jake Fletcher had been chairman for 15 years, and there were those who disapproved of ousting him in favor of young Barney.

3-Minute Fiction

Cyrus Gill, the town's leading and richest citizen, voiced the sentiments of the majority. "Jake ran a good enough fair, but Jake's getting old and his ways are out of date. We gotta keep up with the times out here in Burncrest like everywhere else. Barney Bridges is young and has modern ideas."

This was true enough. Barney promised to zip up the fair. The first thing he planned to do was modernize the horse racing event. Heretofore we'd just had races that were run for the honor of the thing, trotters, with folks making side bets. Barney's idea was to import some famous promoter and make the betting open.

"It's a heck of a lot worse to have a lot of undercover betting going on with no system to it than it will be to have open betting with everyone being given a chance to throw in his dime's worth."

Every one but Jake Fletcher agreed. "The only trouble with that is," he allowed, "this professional promoter jigger you're going to import ain't known to none of us. If he's a slicker, look out!"

"Fshaw!" declared Barney tolerantly. "The man I have in mind has been in the business for years. He wouldn't dare try nothin' funny."

"Dunno about that," said Jake. "You got to figure that every last man of us is endowed with criminal instincts. Oh, we're honest enough on the surface. That's because we're smart. But you give us a chance to pull a fast one and we'll jump at it—if we're sure we can get away with it."

ANYWAY, Barney imported this chap Dana Easton. Dana Easton had promoted everything from prize fights to steamboat races. When he put the proposition up to him he said he'd sure be glad to promote the horse racing angle of our fair.

The day of the fair arrived and it seemed that most of the money was bet on a mare named Homing Pigeon, driven by Charley Colewell. Charlie had won plenty of races in past years and it looked like he was going to win again.

I sat in the grandstand and watched the sulkies line up. They made a pretty sight. The band was playing, the sun shining and everybody was happy and feeling festive. Dana Easton had proven his showmanship by decorating the track and grounds and issuing silk shirts and caps to the drivers. He had also hired the band and installed a loudspeaker system.

Then the race started. Around the track they went, six of them. Burnside's best, stretching out their necks, in perfect stride. Homing Pigeon led up to the half, then Jasper Bush's horse came abreast of him, then Hector Dryson came abreast of them, then Fergus Cross came abreast of them.

It looked like a neck and neck affair, which struck me as being strange. Then suddenly I stopped yelling and just stared. Coming down the stretch the four lead horses had slowed down . . . and by crises, 15 yards from the finish tape, they all stopped!

It wasn't until late that night that I got all the details. Dana Easton had bribed Charlie Colewell and Jasper Bush to pull their horses so Hector Dryson could win. Hector was a long shot and would have paid plenty.

But it didn't work that way. Why? Because Jake Fletcher had figured what Dana Easton was up to and had secretly and individually bribed the other four racers to hold in their horses.

With all six drivers bribed the race simply came to a standstill and nobody finished.

"Which," Jake Fletcher pointed out, "just proves my contention that every man's a crook if he thinks he can get away with it."

SHORT STORY

On The Payroll

By Richard Hill Wilkinson

JUD HAD SEEN the redheaded girl in Mrs. Jones' outer office every day for a week.

He himself was a copy man, and if she were after the same job that he wanted

3-Minute Fiction

it would complicate things. It would cut his chances of success in half, and it would be rather embarrassing because—well, because he thought she was an awfully pretty girl and he liked the way she held her chin high and tried to appear brave.

On Monday of the second week the redheaded girl dropped her handbag. It's contents spilled all over the place. Jud helped pick them up—lipstick, a bunch of keys, a pawn ticket! Jud's lips tightened when he saw that. Just as he thought—she's had to pawn something in order to live.

Of course the handbag episode gave him the liberty of talking with her. Without half trying, he got her story. It was just as he figured. A sad tale of deprivation and lost hope. If only she could see Mr. Jones. She knew he needed a stenographer and she was really awfully good.

A determined light came into Jud's eyes.

Ignoring the protestations of the switchboard girl, he burst through the railed-in space, crossed it in two bounds and threw open the door to Mr. Jones' office.

Mr. Jones was sitting at his desk, smoking a cigar. He looked up with a startled expression when Jud entered. He had heavy jowls and a shock of grey hair and belligerent, bushy eyebrows.

The cigar fell from his mouth. He stood up. Before Jud could utter a word, he barked: "Your name Jud Essex?"

"Yes, sir," said Jud, taken aback.

"I'll be damned!" exclaimed Mr. Jones. "Did she tell you who she was?"

"Did who tell me who who was?" Jud asked, beginning to think he was mistaken for some one else.

"My daughter! That redheaded girl in the outer office?"

It was Jud's turn to drop a cigar, if he'd had one. "Your daughter? That—the girl who wants a job as a stenographer?"

Mr. Jones came round his desk. He was short, but rotund. He glared up at Jud. "You're hired," he said. "I lost a bet, so you're hired. But you'd better make good, or you're fired. Get that!"

Shut up! Do you want the job or don't you?"

Mr. Jones stalked out of the office. A man came in another door.

"Of course, I'm serious. I made a bet with Dad that I'd marry you."

and told Jud to follow him. "Kate always wins," the man said. "Here's your desk. Kate wants you to go to lunch with her this noon."

JUD SAT DOWN, speechless. "Do you mean—I am I one of several who have been hired in this fashion?"

Jud passed a hand through his hair. The man left. Jud sat down at his desk. He tried to straighten things out in his mind, and was beginning to get places, when Kate entered.

At lunch Kate said: "Would you like to marry me?"

"Sure," said Jud, grinning weakly.

"All right then. Right after work. I'll be waiting."

He wondered what was next. He found out. She took him to a minister's. She produced a license. Jud tried to grin. He gulped and stared at her.

"Good lord! You're not serious about this?"

Jud suddenly no longer had the feeling that he liked all this. "Now listen," he said. "I can't marry you. In the first place I don't love you. In the second I think you and your old man are crazy. And in the next place, I'm already married and have three kids!"

Mr. Jones called Jud on the phone the next morning. "Mister, you're still working for me if you want the job. I won a bet from Kate, and it's cured her of her screwy notions. Come on down. Your salary's doubled."

The New Plymouth Special Suburban

Here is the new Plymouth Special Suburban, a luxurious all-metal utility vehicle which is the latest addition to the Plymouth line of automobiles. It is now being produced and shipped to dealers throughout the country.

Plymouth Announces Production of Luxurious New Utility Car

Production is under way and shipments are being made to dealers throughout the country of the Plymouth Special Suburban, according to R. C. Somerville, general sales manager of Plymouth Motor Corp.

The Special Suburban is an all-metal utility vehicle with luxury sedan refinements. Patterned along the lines of the DeLuxe Suburban, which Plymouth first introduced in 1949, the new Special Suburban has retained the styling and utility features which made the DeLuxe Suburban an immediate success. In addition, there are 37 different improvements which add to the car's beauty and comfort.

The exterior of the new car is richly trimmed with chrome and there are many interior refinements. Seat cushions and backs are upholstered in tan Bedford cord; the instrument panel, the windshield garnish moldings and the door garnish moldings are tan leather grained, and the radio grille is chrome-plated. There are arm rests for both front and rear seats, and assist straps for the rear seats. Appointments throughout the interior have been carefully planned to provide maximum comfort and beauty.

The Special Suburban offers the same three-cars-in-one utility that characterizes the DeLuxe Suburban. It has the riding comfort of a fine sedan, and is easily converted into a roomy cargo carrier.

Uncle Sam Says

Graduation days are over and the hopes of these leaving school for the last time are flying high. There is one bit of advice your Uncle Sam wants you graduates to remember, and that is—"the only money you'll ever have is the money you are saving right now. Saving part of each pay-check is the ONLY way to save." And one of the best ways to do it is to buy U. S. Savings Bonds through your company's Payroll Savings Plan. Those Bonds are backed by the full resources of the Government and will return you $4 for every $3 ten years later.

Backyard Vacation

Children have great imaginative powers and can be provided with very rich experiences at little or no expense. This is true, for example, in permitting children to turn their own backyards into camp sites if a costly trip is out of the question. A roasting weiner smells almost as good at home as in the Maine woods, and a clothesline tent is an adequate tepee.

Funds Available

Life insurance companies have made more than a billion dollars available to state, county and municipal governments for their financing needs—used for highways, water works, public buildings, bridges, schools and many other public services.

HOT, FIERY GAS Stomach Like a Furnace

An Antioch man said recently that his stomach used to burn like a "gas factory!" That is, when he ate a meal it seemed to turn right into hot gas. He was always bloated, had gas pains daily. But now this man says he is FREE of STOMACH GAS and he says the change is due to taking CERTA-VIN. His meals agree with him.

CERTA-VIN is a new formula. Taken before meals it works with your food, expels the gas, and thus you get the fullest good out of your meals. It contains Ten Great Herbs, plus vitamin B and Iron. Besides relieving gas it also enriches the blood (with iron) and makes stronger nerves (with vitamin B.) Miserable people soon feel better all over. So don't go on suffering! Get CERTA-VIN—Reeves Drug Store.

Garment Protection

You can protect your garments from the destructive action of perspiration by having them cleaned regularly. The mechanical action necessary to clean clothes removes the bacteria, skin scales, and soil and dirt from the fabric. Drycleaning solvents dissolve oily types of soil. Therefore, the sebun or oily part of perspiration is removed by cleaning garments in dry solvents.

WILMOT

Hopes of a grand opening were dampened Thursday when the weatherman sent showers as his contribution to the Kenosha County fair. The gates were opened to the public at 5 p. m. Cattle, Horses, Swine, Sheep, Poultry and rabbits were exhibited by old as well as young hopefuls. Vegetables, grain, corn and other farm crops were brought to the fair Wednesday and Thursday. Fruit, bees and honey swarmed about also. Many a man has gone without lunch in the county, to pave the blue ribbon way for his wife. The women's division, which includes Cullinary and garment making tasks had an unusual number of participants this year.

Friday proved a better day, after an understanding with the weatherman, the parade, which consisted of bands, banners, advertising, 4-H floats, ponies, horses and the county Dairy Queen, Miss Gail Gilmore, of Bristol and "Alice in Dairyland", Miss Virginia Peterson, of Union Grove, plus farm implements and local talent was held. Judging of the cattle was held Friday, and many thrilled to the ribbons which donned the animals. Grand champion, purple; first, blue, second, red, third yellow, fourth white, fifth green. The first of six performances of the free acts was given at 3 o'clock on the afternoon of the second day. Friday proved to be the first evening of the evening was a three-year-old, Helen Horlick, of Racine, who placed fourth in the children's equitation event. This event was won by Jim Welch, riding Patsy, owned by F. C. Welch.

Noble Lady took the three gaited amateur competition. She was ridden by her owner, Jeanne Doyle. First place in the harness pony show went to His Majesty driven by owner Beulah Puls. Top honors in the three-gaited open went to Dawn Pippen, ridden by Arnold Beatty and owned by Mar O'Hara. The amateur five-gaited event was won by Raleigh's Masterpiece ridden by Mrs. Paul Bauers and owned by Mr. Bauers.

Chita Linda, ridden by owner Jean Mohrhuisen, took first in the pleasure horse competition. Little Silver King, ridden by Lois Rack and owned by Mrs. W. Koehler won first place in the English riders division of the same class. Top honors in the open roadsters event went to Senator driven by Gerald Huntington and owned by R. B. Fraizer. Ovation Prince, ridden by owner, Mrs. Edward Mutz captured the first prize in the hackney pony division. First place in the Shetland pony class went to Newsboy Flash ridden by Larry Steinke and owned by Harry Cooper. The judges named One Three number one in the open jumpers class. The horse was ridden by Hugh Rex McRose, its owner. The senior stock horse championship went to Golden Sunset, carrying Jim Steinhoff and owned by Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Rasor, Sr. My Charm Arah, owned by Mary O'Hara took top honors in the adult equitation meet. Polly, owned and ridden by Frank H. Lohaus, led the field in the yearling colt class.

Saturday a dress revue was held in which the 4-H girls participated. Each girl modeled a garment which she had made. WLP, Kenosha's radio station held watermelon and pie eating contests for the amusement of all.

Officers of the fair board are: Marlin M. Schnurr, president, of Wilmot; George B. Price, vice president, of Kenosha; Henry S. Frank, secretary, of Wilmot; Alfred Schmidt, treasurer, of Salem; and Robert Van Lier, rep. at large, of Salem. Directors, Robert Van Lier, Glen Pacey, Grace Carey, E. V. Ryall, George Price, Earl Elfers, Robert Pringle, M. M. Schnurr, Ferd Baysinger, Mrs. Otto Schenning, George Molinaro, Chester Knight, Ervin Rasch, Charles Dillard and Alfred Schmidt.

The Kiddie parade held on Saturday took the spotlight away from the exciting rides, mid-way games of skill and hot dogs. Some 25 kiddies ranging in age from 3-14 were entered in the gala show. Wagons decorated as merry-go-rounds, cages stages and bicycles which resembled canoes, rose gardens and held the usual decorative colors of any season. The characters from story books came too. The Queen of Hearts, Miss Muffet, Humpty Dumpty and a parade without clowns is not a parade. Uncle Sam and the army were represented along with animals and doll buggies gaily decorated.

Sunday the crowd gathered and spent most of the day in the tents where local merchants held their exhibits, guessing games and prizes were awarded Sunday evening.

Now the county folks will relieve the exciting and interesting events of the Thirtieth annual Kenosha County fair, held at Wilmot, Wis., which was in its one hundredth year August 10, 11, 12 and 13. All will once again be normal in the County.

Wilmot Takes V. F. W. For Ride by 3-1 Score

The heretofore booming bats of the Antioch V. F. W. were all but silenced for the first time Sunday as Shadow Richards and his Wilmot teammates nipped Antioch by a 3-1 count. Richards probably never pitched a better game as he allowed only two hits and but two other balls were hit to the outfield. Eight Antioch sticklers went down via the strike out route and not one man reached first on a base on balls or by being hit, so perfect was Richards' control. In spite of this superlative piece of hurling the result might have been much different but for one fielding nuisance and a couple of questionable bits of strategy.

Ed Olsen was on the slab for the V. F. W. and was charged with his first league loss. His first four innings were quite hectic as he seemed to concentrate more on striking out men than hurling effective ball. He settled down, however, and was working smoothly at the finish of the game.

The batting hero for Wilmot proved to be Merlin Jahns. It was he who smote a triple in the third inning with two men on to drive in the eventual winning counter. Dutch Haase, Ted Skora and Shadow Richards each collected two singles.

Antioch's attack consisted solely of a double by Ed Palenski and a single by Dick Scott, both of which came in the fourth inning.

Wilmot scored its first tally in the second inning. John Schnurr hit a hard grounder over the mound. Scott raced to his left and made a glove hand stop of the ball behind second base, off balance he threw wide to first base. When Ray Wells stood and watched the ball sail past, Schnurr took second. He advanced to third on a ground out and scored on Wally Skora's fly to right field.

The third inning saw Wilmot finish its scoring. After the first two men popped out, Haase lined a single to left center. Ted Skora hit a Texas leaguer to left center which dropped in for a single. Haase went to third on the hit and Skora took second on the throw to third. Mer. Jahns then stepped to the plate. Instead of walking him as strategy might dictate, he was made to hit. Olsen grew careless and instead of giving him poor pitches tried to sneak one over the outside corner which Jahns promptly lined down the left field line. Haase and Skora scored and Jahns stretched the blow into a triple when for the fourth time in two games Palenski made a very ineffective tag attempt at a hook sliding runner. The runs proved to be the victory margin.

In the fourth inning the Vets made their only score. After Crawford fouled out Palenski timed a slow curve beautifully and doubled to right center. Dick Scott then hit the same kind of pitch down the right field line. Palenski scoring. Scott reached second as Jahns fumbled the ball and took third on an infield out. An attempt to steal home was unsuccessful when Fox suddenly bunted. The bunt was foul and Fox then popped out to end the inning.

Antioch's only other scoring opportunity came in the sixth inning. Olsen reached first safely when Bill Schnurr booted his ground ball. Crawford then sacrificed Olsen to second and reached first safely himself when Wally Skora threw wildly to first. Palenski in attempting to sacrifice popped into a double play to end the threat. Richards set down the Vets in order the last three innings to wrap up the victory.

Next Sunday the V. F. W. will travel to Lincoln Park, Kenosha, to engage the United Cleaners. Antioch took the first game and are hoping to make it two straight. The game is scheduled for 3 p. m. D. S. T.

Moose Defeat Racine 12 to 7 to Gain Tie For Circuit's Top Post

The Loyal Order of Moose softball team went into a first place tie in the fraternal league by whipping Racine Moose 12 to 7 at the losers diamond last Sunday.

The game, played before a large crowd assembled for the Racine Moose annual picnic, found the local club hitting and fielding much better. In fact, the local Moose, on the basis of their improved play in recent games must be stamped as title contenders.

Wally Good and Joe Buszta led the Antioch fifteen hit attack with three blows apiece, each one including a long home-run in the assortment.

Art Meyers hurled a steady game after a couple of shaky innings, and scattered twelve enemy hits along the route. The losers were paced by Combs with three hits and Niebauer with a pair, including a four base smash.

The coming weekend will furnish plenty of action for the Moose club, with games scheduled Thursday and Friday at home and a Sunday tilt at Highland Park with the vaunted Highland Park Governors.

Wood's Confectionery of Lake Forest, who dropped a 14-13 thriller here recently, will make another appearance Thursday at 8:30. The Racine Moose will provide the opposition for the local club on Friday, this game also set to start at 8:30 at the High School diamond.

Rates Set for Care of Aged Antioch and Lake Villa townships will be required to pay $2.25 a day per person for care in the county home for the aged. Township sponsored patients at the Lake County General hospital will be cared for at a rate of $6 a day. The Illinois Public Aid commission will pay more in both cases.

Speed Calls at Lake Villa Equipment is being installed by the Illinois Bell Telephone Co., that will speed up calls between Libertyville, Round Lake, Fox Lake, Lake Villa, and Grayslake. It will be ready for use within the next two or three months necessitating modification of telephone numbers in Round Lake and Grayslake.

Denies Maypole's Charge Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson has denied the charge of George M. Maypole that the state canvassing board plans to keep him off the general election ballot in November. "No one in my office has made the statement to which you refer, either publicly or privately. The canvassing board obviously cannot pass on the petition until it is received," said the governor.

Outboard Motors Stolen Two outboard motors valued at $325 were taken Friday from the boat house of Louis Wybow at North Fox Lake Heights. Wybow said the theft occurred while he was absent from the cottage an hour. The thieves got in the boat house by prying off a hasp. An elderly man and a middle aged man were seen at the cottage about the time of the theft. The motors were insured.

Hawkins Finishes Eleventh Fred Hawkins, Jr., Antioch continued his winnings as a professional golfer when he tied for eleventh place in the world series play at Tam O' Shanter course Saturday. His score was 295, just 14 holes under the winner. His prize money was $625. Henry Ransom, Chicago, and Chick Herbert, Detroit, tied for first and second prize money totaling $10,000.

Caused Trouble at Fox Lake Five Chicago men armed with knives and ball bats who started a fight in Fox Lake Sunday, were stopped in their car and trailer by deputy sheriffs at the point of a gun on Rte. 59 a mile south of Loon lake rd. They were taken to the county jail and will be taken to Fox Lake Saturday for hearing in police court.

Their names were listed as Salvatore Maranto, 20, his brothers, Joseph 17, Vincent, 25, James Broccolino, 21, and his brother Tony 19. When the deputies started to arrest them one attacked a deputy and others went to his assistance. They were charged with disorderly conduct. Five women with the Chicago men were not identified.

Squad Called to Paddock Lake The Antioch Rescue squad went to Paddock Lake at 4 p. m. Sunday in answer to a call that a Chicago resident had suffered a stroke. The man was better when the squad arrived and relatives arranged to take him to a Kenosha hospital for a checkup before taking him back to Chicago. He was at the lake on vacation.

Democratic Chairman Hurt Walter Koziol, Democratic county chairman, received a broken right wrist, broken right ankle and chest injuries when his car and the car of Ernest Newberry, Waukegan, collided at the south edge of Lake Bluff on Rte. 42A. Newberry has a broken right knee and chest injuries. Both were taken to Lake Forest hospital.

Covering Mahogany Stain If you are faced with the problem of painting woodwork that has been covered with mahogany stain just apply a coat of aluminum paint to prevent that stain from coming through the new paint. Then an application of the new one-coat paint is all you need.

Egg Whites Egg whites taken from eggs three to five days old will beat much more satisfactorily at this state of freshness than when newly laid. Also, eggs that have been warmed to room temperature will beat more readily than will chilled eggs.

Shocking Discovery Do you get a shock on touching your car? If it is one of the newer cars—many of which are being equipped with plastic seat covers—this shock may be caused by the static electricity such covers create.

First Ready-Mixed Paint Pliny, the historian, establishes the fact that white lead was manufactured by the Romans as early as 430 B.C. Many centuries passed, however, before the introduction of the first prepared, or ready-mixed paints. A patented material of this description is said to have been produced first by D. R. Averill of Newburg, Ohio, in July 1897.

Memorial Day Although it is fairly new in this country, the idea of Memorial day is a very old one. It stems from the solemn Greek rite of "Zoni," and the Roman "Parentalia." There are special days for honoring the dead throughout the world. In France the dead are remembered on the "Jour des Morts," in Rumania on the "Eve of Trinity," and in the East Indies and parts of China on a day called "Ching Ming."

First Skyscraper The first skyscraper was built about 300 B.C. It was the great stone lighthouse on the island of Pharos at Alexandria. One of the seven wonders of the ancient world, it stood thirty stories or 370 feet high.
